Dreſden, April 11.

The Diet have lately paſſed an Act for conſolidating the Land-Accis, or Taxes payable on Home Manufactures and Traffick, as well as on Foreign Commodities after their Importation. Theſe Taxes were formerly levied upon the ſame Commodity, under various Titles, which differed in every Province of the Electorate, and were ſubject to a Renewal on every Tranſportation from one Mart to another; ſo that a Door was opened to all Manner of Fraud, and to the moſt ruinous Proſecutions. By the new Regulations, a very conſiderable Number of Articles are exempted from this Tax, chiefly for the Relief of the Poor, as are alſo all Raw Materials imported, and uſed in the Manufactures of the Country, which will be highly advantageous to the Woollen, Cotton and Linen Manufacturers. The Mode of collecting the Taxes now eſtabliſhed is ſo ſimplified, that, upon their being once paid, the Merchandize may be tranſported to any Part of the Electorate, without further Examination, or becoming liable to any further Duty.

A new Tariff for regulating the Taxes on the internal Commerce of the Country will be immediately publiſhed; and the Elector has given Orders to his College of Commerce to prepare another, for regulating the Taxes on Merchandize imported from Foreign Parts.
